Coffee Strong's Mission Statement

G.I. Voice takes pride in being both pro-soldier and antiwar. We know the wars the United States is involved in are unnecessarily taxing our service members and their families, and that the needs of those affected by war are not being met. We provide service members, veterans, and their families a place in which to freely express themselves. We provide access to G.I. rights counseling, alternative sources of information, and links to resources for veterans, service members, and their families. We believe that by sharing our stories, educating ourselves, and organizing in support of each other we can bring about the change necessary to create a livable world.
